Director General's Message

The Meeting in Seoul, Korea, is turning out to be a well attended, scholarly and state of the art scientific assembly. Also, they have a great Social program. I know, I have been there. There is still time to sign up. Please log on to Society website for the updated program to get the flavor of the meeting.

Hope to see you in Seoul.

Indru T. Khubchandani, M.D., Director General

Society Updates

The International Society of University Colon and Rectal Surgeons would like to remind you of a few activities regarding the society.

1. The ISUCRS World Journal of Colorectal Surgery, ISUCRS' official on-line journal, is continuing to gain momentum. To further its growth, please remember to submit manuscripts to the journal. The journal can be accessed through the ISUCRS web site (www.isucrs.org). All presenters at the upcoming meeting in Korea are encouraged to submit manuscripts to the journal.
2. The next Biennial Congress of the ISUCRS will take place March 19-23, 2010 in Seoul, Korea. More information can be found at www.isucrs2010seoul.org.

ISUCRS will be revamping its committee structure. If you would like to become more involved in a committee, please contact Aaron at aaron@isucrs.org. Available committees include:

Bylaws Committee

Communication Committee

Education Committee

Future Meeting Site Committee

Future Planning Committee

Membership Committee

Publications Committee

Program Committee

International Grants

We appreciate your membership in the International Society of University Colon and Rectal Surgeons and if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the ISUCRS staff.
